

Sarah Beth Therien Memorial Scholarship

Sarah Beth Therien was a long-time employee of the Canada Safety Council and a passionate advocate for child and traffic safety. The Sarah Beth Therien Memorial Scholarship is intended to honour Sarah's memory, and to raise the profile of safety in the minds of young Canadians. Its purpose also extends to increasing awareness among young Canadians of the resources and services the CSC provides.

Award value: $2,000

Award criteria:

- You must be a Canadian citizen or permanent resident.
- You must have completed high school or be in your graduating year, and enrolled full-time in a recognized Canadian post-secondary program. Current undergraduate and college students are also eligible to apply.
- Applications will be accepted until June 30, 2019, and the recipient will need to provide proof of enrollment at his or her post-secondary institution before we issue the value of the scholarship on or before October 1, 2019.

To apply:

- Fill out the accompanying Applicant Information form.
- In 500 – 700 words, clearly describe an initiative you undertook to improve safety in your community or at home, school, or work. Indicate what you did; why you did it; and how safety was improved. The initiative must have demonstrated results. Attach this description of your safety initiative to this application. On the last page of your description, indicate the word count.
- Three references (who are not relatives of yours) must provide signed and sealed letters to describe and verify your initiatives.
- Provide a signed and sealed copy of your high school transcript if you are entering your first year of post-secondary studies. If you are entering your second or subsequent year of post-secondary studies, provide a signed and sealed copy of your post-secondary transcript.
- Mail your completed application to the following address:

Canada Safety Council
Attention: Scholarship Committee
1020 Thomas Spratt Place
Ottawa, ON K1G 5K5

Applicants will be disqualified for failing to meet any of the above criteria. The decision of the judges is final. We expect to notify the recipient by phone or email on or before September 1, 2019.
